MEMORIAL DAY SAFETY

Safety Tips for Memorial Day

Memorial Day honors the brave men and women who lost their lives while serving in the United States Armed Forces to protect our country. The holiday, which falls on Monday, May 27th, also signifies the unofficial start to summer. Every year, hundreds of millions of Americans partake in parades, get together with their family and friends, and light up the grill to ring in Memorial Day. Before you, your friends and loved ones celebrate the upcoming holiday, be sure to read some travel, swimming, and cooking safety tips to make your time as fun and risk-free as possible.

PRODUCT SAFETY

How Common Are Design and Manufacturing Defects?

Although product manufacturers have a duty to ensure the safety of their products, many injuries and hospitalizations occur every year due to defective products. Five to ten percent of all annual personal injury lawsuits are due to harm caused by defective products.

COAL MINER INJURIES

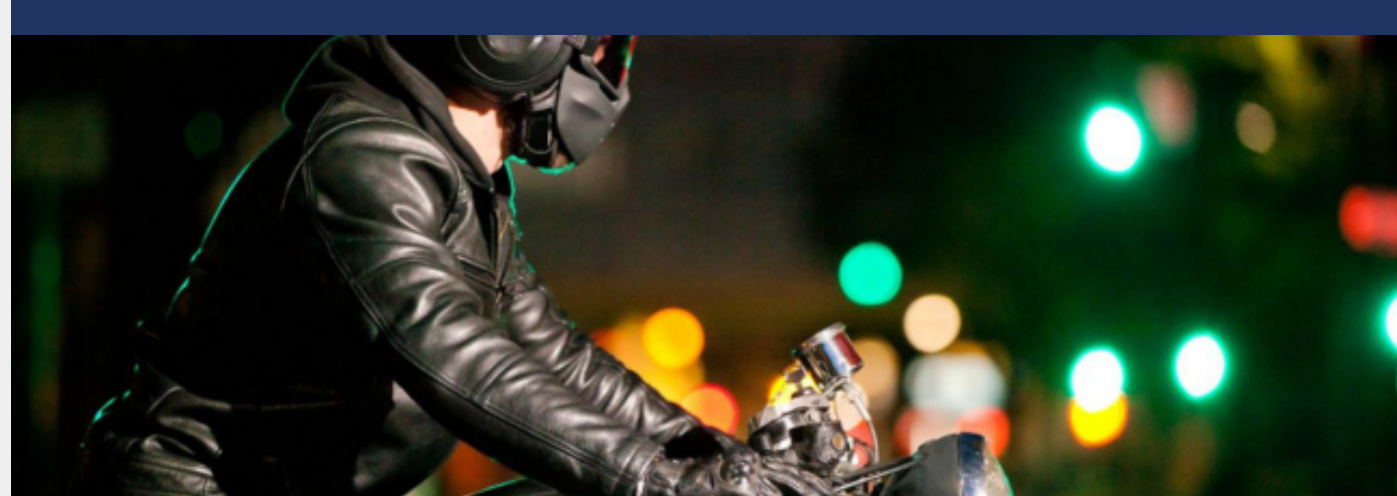

DOL's New Rule to Limit Coal Miner's Exposure to Silica Dust

According to the most recent numbers from the Bureau of Labor Statistics (BLS), more Pennsylvania workers died from occupational injuries in 2022 than in the previous nine years. In addition, 126,400 others sustained significant work-related injuries during that same period. The numbers paint a story of the numerous risks that workers face and show how far too many preventable injuries and deaths continue to occur every day.

MOTORCYCLE SAFETY AWARENESS MONTH

This Month is Motorcycle Safety Awareness Month

Motorcycles may be fun, exciting and fast – but they are also quite dangerous to ride. In fact, although only representing 3% of registered motor vehicles on the road, motorcycles account for 14% of all traffic-related fatalities. Each May, the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) sponsors Motorcycle Safety Awareness Month to remind all motorists how they can help reduce preventable injuries and deaths on our nation's roadways. To commemorate this year's Motorcycle Safety Awareness Month, keep reading to learn some life-saving tips.
